

Tansi - Hello and how are you?

CHIEF DAN GEORGE

1899 - 1981

A chief of the Tsleil-Waututh Nation, a Coast Salish band whose reserve is located on Burrard Inlet in the southeast area of the District of North Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

"The heart never knows the colour of the skin."

"Can we talk of integration until there is integration of hearts and minds? Unless you have this, you only have a physical presence, and the walls between us are as high as the mountain range."

Once again we are called upon as a society to respond to something which has had a global impact.....the killing of George Floyd. Through one of the Indigenous teachings contained in the Medicine Wheel, we come to understand that ALL Nations of the world are created equal. The circle implies that we have an equal voice and that ALL voices matter. The colors of the wheel represent the Nations of people....all races....ALL of us....and together we must solve our problems in a spirit of kindness and solidarity. How? Let each of us, look at our own perceptions of those who are different from us, look into our own hearts and be reminded of Chief George's words..."The heart never knows the color of the skin".

Let's be honest with ourselves and have the courage to acknowledge where we can improve and start to make the shift to a level of greater acceptance, greater non-judgement, greater kindness, greater understanding and ultimately, a great love for ALL.

Let's give it a try. Maybe we can take that mountain down.
Stay positive, strong and healthy.....keep moving forward.

Jingle dress dancers honour George Floyd at site where he was killed

"This kind of unity that's bringing people together, it's the kind of thing that's going to help us battle systems of oppression," said Skjefte.

Horatio Alger Indigenous Achievement Scholarship

The Horatio Alger Indigenous Achievement Scholarship is for Indigenous students starting a four year post-secondary program in the fall of 2020. It is a four year, $2500 per year renewable award. While enrolled in post-secondary students must maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA and a full-time course load to receive the renewed support each year.

Deadline to apply is July 1, 2020.

Canada Post Awards for Indigenous Students

The Canada Post Awards for Indigenous Students celebrate the hard work and determination of Indigenous peoples who have embraced a renewed pursuit of learning. The awards are open to all First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples who have been out of school for one year or more, who have since decided to return to an educational system, and who have now been back at school for at least one year. The Canada Post Awards for Indigenous Students are granted annually to select applicants from across the country.

Deadline to apply is August 31, 2020.

Post-Secondary Education – Skilled Trades

Post-Secondary Education Programs: part-time or full-time certificate or diploma programs (1 month to 4 year programs)

Deadlines: August 1, November 1, February 1 at 11:59 p.m. EST

The Building Brighter Futures: Bursaries, Scholarships and Awards program is made possible thanks to generous supporters and federal and provincial governments. While we work to increase the amount of funding available each year, due to the growth in the number of applications, we're not able to fund every student that applies.
