

Overall Value for Life

In addition to the value of post-secondary admissions, Aboriginal Studies 30 will assist in the change of relationships between Indigenous peoples and mainstream society. Historically, there has been a lack of understanding of the histories, memories, and experiences of Indigenous peoples which often causes many misunderstandings between Indigenous peoples and mainstream society. Aboriginal Studies 30 will work toward contributing to the growth of Aboriginal perspectives in curriculum and provide students with a better understanding of the Indigenous peoples of Canada.

The Aboriginal Studies 30 program of studies states “the program can serve to increase an awareness, appreciation and understanding of the rich and long-lasting history, culture and contributions of Aboriginal peoples as part of our society.” Ultimately, it is our goal and hope that our spirit and intent of providing this course will only contribute to miyo wicshitowin –good relations between all.
